Promoting Healthy Kids Day at the 28th Annual Kids ¼ Miler

Hornell, NY – Saturday, May 20, Healthy Kids Day kicks off the 28th Annual Kids Quarter-Miler at 9 a.m. in Hornell High School gymnasium. This event is co-sponsored by St. James Mercy Hospital, the Hornell Kiwanis Club, Oak Orchard Health and the Hornell YMCA. Parents and children can interact with several local organizations promoting healthy lifestyle choices.

The Kids ¼ Miler races will promptly begin at 11am at Maple City Park. Entry fee for the race is $5.00. The Kids ¼ Miler provides area kids aged 2 - 12 an opportunity to participate in a fun activity while promoting physical exercise as a key to good health. Registration and entry packets will be available on race day during the Healthy Kids Day. Pre-registration is strongly recommended; call the Community Services Office at St. James Mercy Hospital (607-324-8147) to pre-register your child for the race or for more information.
