FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Canisteo Greenwood Student Artists Display Work at St. James Mercy Hospital

April 8, 2016...Hornell, NY... Several Canisteo Greenwood students recently loaned their artwork to St. James Mercy Hospital (SJM) for display in the lobby, cafeteria, and emergency room hallway.

This exhibit showcases artwork from members of the Canisteo Greenwood Central School (CGCS) Art Club. Art Club members include: Troy Colvin-Nix, Leah Evans, Randi Fay (Treasurer), Amanda Gardner (President), Lindsey Garrigues (Treasurer), Sadie Heckel (Vice President), Kennedy Henshaw, Meghan Johnson, Arielle Kallier, Reanna Lemen, Elizabeth Loop, Leighann Mattison, Lissy Nisbet, Olivia Reska (Secretary), and Lillian Thompson.

“We are delighted to display the works of so many creative students,” said Jen Sullivan, president and CEO. “This is the first student art exhibit at SJMH, and we are pleased to offer the opportunity for local, budding artists to display their talents. Not only are we hopeful this exhibit will encourage local talent, but it also gives us the opportunity to enhance our facility.”

The student artwork will be on display at the hospital through May. Most of the pieces are available for purchase with 80 percent of the proceeds going to the Canisteo Greenwood Central School Art Club, and 20 percent being donated to St. James Mercy Foundation. Anyone interested in purchasing artwork may contact the Foundation at (607) 324-8146 or stop in at the Hospital's Aquinas Gift Shop.
