August 5, 2011...Hornell, NY – McAuley Manor is pleased to announce that Brittney Smith has been named its 2011 Resident Scholarship Award winner.

Each year the residents of McAuley Manor award a $200 scholarship to a New Visions student who is pursuing a career in health care. The BOCES New Visions Health Careers Exploration program partners with St. James Mercy to offer high school seniors the opportunity to experience hands-on training and shadow health care professionals.
